SURRATT'S TRIAL.

NINTH DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.

Further Testimony for Prosecution.

Sergeant Dye's Evidence Corroborated.

Special Dispatch to Pittsburgh Commercial.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 19, 1867.

The Surratt trial to-day developed more evidence for the prosecution to sustain the previous testimony showing Surratt's presence in Washington on the night of the assassination. The companion of Sergeant Dye, Sergeant Cooper, corroborated Dye's evidence in several particulars, and another witness testified to being introduced by Harrold to a man at Willard's Hotel on April 14th, who looked very much like Surratt. The latter stood up in court and eyed the witness steadily, to see if he could be identified by him. When a witness from St. Albans, Vt., testified to a man sleeping in the railroad depot on April 17th, 1865, who dropped a handkerchief with the name of Surratt on it, the prisoner became nervous and evinced the keenest anxiety to hear every word of the testimony. When the handkerchief was produced which Surratt had dropped more than two years ago, and which was being used as evidence of his flight to Canada immediately succeeding the assassination, there was quite a sensation in Court, but the prisoner seemed most astonished of all the vast crowd in attendance. Surratt evidently feels the evidence which the prosecution is weaving around him, for he appeared paler and more nervous in Court to-day than heretofore. He occasionally prompted his counsel, and spent the time during a recess of the Court in conversing with his brother.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—In the Surratt trial Judge Fisher declined to order the prosecution to disclose to the defense the list of witnesses, and also refused the application made by counsel for defense that they be allowed to recall witness Reed for cross-examination after another witness, not now here, shall have arrived. He, however, allowed full latitude in the cross-examination of the witness.

Carroll Hobert, a conductor on the Vermont Central Railroad, testified that a man resembling Surratt passed over the road on a Tuesday in April, 1865; another man was with him, both without money to pay their fare; they were compelled to get out at St. Albans; said they would walk to Franklin, which is four miles from the Canada line.

Charles Blum, clerk of the Weldon House, St. Albans, testified he was on watch at the depot on the night of April 17, 1865; two men came into the depot on that night, one tall and the other short: the tall man asked to sleep in the depot; he did so, and I called him at 4 A. M., Tuesday, April 18. After the man went out I picked up something where the tall man was sleeping—a white cambric handkerchief. It was shown and examined; witnesses recognized the handkerchief as the one picked up where the tall man was lying; the handkerchief bears the name of J. H. Surratt; that name was on it when it was picked up; after I picked up the handkerchief I discovered the name, and then showed it to the agent of the Railroad Company; never saw the man afterwards.

S. Grills, examined: Was living near the navy yard in 1865; kept a restaurant in Ford's theater; knew J. W. Booth by sight; knew Booth five or six years before; knew Harrold and Atzerot; saw Harrold at five o'clock on the day of the assassination; saw Atzerot about ten minutes after that; Harrold and witness walked together and saw Atzerot at the Kirkwood House; I was coming down Tenth street, and he (Harrold) met me and asked me if I saw J. W. Booth; said I did at 11 A. M. at the theater; had also seen Booth at 4 o'clock on horseback; he rode a small gray horse; then Harrold said: "You know General Lee is in town;" I replied I had not heard it; Harrold said, "Yes, he is at Willard's, and if you will walk with me, we'll see something about it;" as we were passing the Kirkwood, Atzerot was sitting on the steps, and Harrold stopped to speak with him; Harrold and witness then walked to Willard's, and Harrold talked to two young men there; witness could not hear the conversation, but when Harrold parted with the two young men,—"You will be there to-night;" he then walked towards Grover's theater, and I noticed Harrold walked lame; when near the theater, Harrold pulled up his pants, and I saw a long dagger handle protruding from his boot leg; I asked him what he was going to do with that; he said he was going to the country that night, and such things were handy there.

Question—Do you see any one in Court who looks like the man to whom Harrold said, "will you be there to-night?"

Witness answered by pointing out the prisoner; he looked very much like the man, but witness could not say whether he was the same man or not; he wore no beard, but had a light moustache.

John L. Tippett testified—He heard Mrs. Surratt in 1863 say she would give any one a thousand dollars if he would kill Lincoln; this was said in the presence of John; the latter, when there was a Union victory, said, "Damn the Northern army and leaders thereof; they all ought to be sent to hell." This was when witness carried the mail from Washington to Charlotte hall.

Sergeant Cooper testified he was with Sergeant Dye on the night of the assassination, and heard one of the men in front of the theater call out the time, ten minutes to ten; there was nothing which specially excited his suspicion; he corroborated Dye's testimony that while he and Dye were returning to Camp Barry, at H street, No. 541, a middle aged lady raised the window and asked what was going on down town; witness and Dye told her the President had been shot by Booth.

The Court took a recess until to-morrow morning.

THE CABINET.

Registration Orders Agreed Upon.

The Restoration of Rebel Officials.

Special Dispatch to Pittsburgh Commercial.

WASHINGTON, June 19, 1867.

The Cabinet held its third day's consecutive session this afternoon on the question of issuing orders in conformity with Attorney General Stanbery's opinion on registration in the Southern Military Districts, and also on the matter of the restoration of the displaced officials. Three Cabinet sessions in succession have not been held even on more important matters, although this occasion is hastened some what by the President's contemplated departure for Boston. With regard to the meeting to-day it is learned that orders relative to registration were finally agreed on. They will be promulgated through the Adjutant General's Office to the military commanders. It is believed that no general rule was determined on relative to the restoration of the Southern State and municipal officials, but, that as heretofore indicated in these dispatches, each case will be taken up and acted on separately, and probably through correspondence with the military commanders.

The Intelligencer doubtless reflects the views of the President when it significantly says to-day: "That while these removals are illegal and improper, the matter might assume a new phase when the question of replacing particularly obnoxious persons in important posts, came up for Executive consideration."

FROM ALBANY.

Proceedings of the Constitutional Convention.

ALBANY, June 19.—In the Constitutional Convention, Standing Committees were appointed. Among the business presented were resolutions considering the propriety of amending the Constituton to secure and protect all the cities in the State in the administration of their own local Governments from infringements on their rights and persons, and from partizan and partial legislation on the part of the Legislature. A motion to strike from the present Constitution all relating to persons of color, was referred.

An inquiry into the expediency of providing for the more equal and just representation in the Legislature by all legislators, minorities as well as majorities. With this view a system was proposed by John Stewart Mill for the English Parliament. It will be examined and referred.

A motion that the Committee on the rights of suffrage be instructed to inquire and report as to the expediency of extending the elective franchise to all native-born citizens of the State between the ages of 18 and 21, was laid on the table.

A motion that the Constitution be amended to allow every male citizen twenty-one years of age, who has been a citizen ten days and an inhabitant six months preceding the election, and the last three months a resident of the county the right to vote; that all persons who have been or may be convicted of bribery or having received a bribe for their votes, or any infamous crime, and all deserters, be excluded from suffrage, was referred.

A motion instructing the Committee on Education to inquire as to the expediency of making education compulsory was referred.

GENERAL ORDERS IN BANKRUPTCY

As Promulgated by the Supreme Court of the United States.

ORDER OF COURT IN RELATION TO RULES, &C., IN BANKRUPTCY.

Ordered, That certain rules and forms of proceeding in bankruptcy having been framed and adopted in Court, in pursuance of the act of Congress, approved March 2, 1867, the same are now promulgated as such.

And it is furthered ordered, that the said rules and forms be recorded by the Clerk, and that they be allowed to be printed.
D. W. MIDDLETON,
Clerk, Supreme Court United States.
May 16, 1867.

In pursuance of the tenth section of the act entitled "An Act to establish a uniform system of Bankruptcy throughout the United States," approved March 2, 1867, the Justices of the Supreme Court of the United States have framed the following General Orders, which shall constitute the Rules of Practice and Procedure in Bankruptcy in the District Courts of the United States.

I—DUTIES OF CLERKS OF DISTRICT COURTS.

The Clerks of the several District Courts shall enter upon each Petition in Bankruptcy, the day, and the hour of the day, upon which the same shall be filed; and shall also make a similar note upon every subsequent paper filed with them; and the papers in each case shall be kept in a file by themselves. No paper shall be taken from the file for any purpose, except by order of the Court. Every paper shall have indorsed upon it a brief statement of its character. The Clerks shall keep a docket, in which the cases shall be entered and numbered in the order in which they are commenced; and the number of each case shall be indorsed on every paper. The docket shall be so arranged that a brief memorandum of every proceeding in each case shall be entered therein, in a manner convenient for reference, and shall at all times be open for public inspection. The Clerks shall also keep separate minute books for the record of proceedings in bankruptcy; in which shall be entered a minute of all the proceedings in each case, either of the Court or of a Register of the Court, under their respective dates.

II—PROCESS.

All process, summons and subpenas shall issue out of the Court, under the seal thereof, and be tested by the Clerk; and blanks with the signature of the Clerk and seal of the Court may, upon application, be furnished to the Registers.

III—APPEARANCE.

Proceedings in bankruptcy may be conducted by the bankrupt in person in his own behalf, or by a petitioning or opposing creditor; but a creditor will only be allowed to manage before the Court his individual interest. Either party may appear and conduct the proceedings by attorney, who shall be an attorney or counselor authorized to practice in the Circuit or District Court. The name of the attorney or counselor, with his place of residence and business, shall be entered upon the docket, with the date of the entry. All papers or proceedings offered by an attorney to be filed shall be indorsed as above required; and orders granted on motion shall contain the name of the party or attorney making the motion. Notices and orders which are not, by the act, or by these rules, required to be served on the party personally, may be served upon his attorney.

IV—COMMENCEMENT OF PROCEEDINGS.

Upon the filing of a Petition in case of Voluntary Bankruptcy, or as soon as any adjudication of bankruptcy is made upon a petition filed in case of Involuntary Bankruptcy, the petition shall be referred to one of the Registers in such manner as the District Court shall direct; and the petitioner shall furnish the Register with a copy of the papers in the case, and thereafter all the proceedings required by the act shall be had before him, except such as are required by the act to be had in the District Court, or by special order of the District Judge, unless some other Register is directed to act in the case.

The order designating the Register to act upon any petition shall name a day upon which the bankrupt shall attend before the Register, from which date he shall be subject to the orders of the Court in all matters relating to his bankruptcy, and may receive from the Register a protection against arrest, to continue until the final adjudication on his application for a discharge, unless suspended or vacated by order of the Court.

A copy of the order shall forthwith be sent by mail to the Register, or be delivered to him personally by the Clerk or other officer of the Court.

V—REGISTERS.

The time when, and the place where, the Registers shall act upon the matters arising under the several cases referred to them, shall be fixed by special order of the District Court, or, by the Register acting under the authority of a general order in each case, made by the District Court; and at such times and places the Registers may perform the acts which they are empowered to do by the act, and conduct proceedings in relation to the following matters, when uncontested, viz.: making adjudications on petition of the debtor; directing, unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the newspapers in which the notices shall be published by the messenger; administering oaths; receiving the surrender of a bankrupt; granting protection thereon; giving requisite direction for notices, advertisements, and other ministerial proceedings; taking proofs of claims; ordering payment of rates and taxes, and salary, or wages of persons in the employment of the assignee; ordering amendments, or inspection, or copies, or extracts of any proceedings; taking accounts of proceeds of securities held by any Creditor; taking evidence concerning expenses and charges against the bankrupt's estate; auditing and passing accounts of assignees; proceedings for the declaration and payment of dividends, and taxing costs in any of the proceedings, all of which shall be subject to the control of the Court.

VI—DISPATCH OF BUSINESS.

Every Register, in performing the duties required of him, under the act, and by these orders, or by orders of the District Court, shall use all reasonable dispatch, and shall not adjourn the business but for good cause shown. Six hours' session shall constitute a day's sitting if the business require; and when there is time to complete the proceedings in progress within the day, the party obtaining any adjournment or postponement thereof may be charged, if the Court think proper, with all the costs incurred in consequence of the delay.

VII—EXAMINATIONS AND FILING OF PAPERS.

It shall be the duty of the Register to examine the bankrupt's petition and schedules filed therewith, and to certify whether the same are correct in form; or, if deficient, in what respect they are so; and the Court may allow amendments to be made in the petition and schedules upon the application of the petitioner, upon proper cause shown, at any time prior to the discharge of the bankrupt. At the close of the last examination of the bankrupt, the Register having charge of the case, shall file all the papers relating thereto in the office of the Clerk of the District Court, and these papers, together with those on file in the Clerk's office, and the entries in the minute book, shall constitute the record in each case; and the Clerk shall cause the papers in each case to be bound together.

VIII—ORDERS BY THE REGISTER.

Whenever an order is made by a Register in any proceeding in which notice is required to be given to either party before the order can be made, the fact that the notice was given, and the substance of the evidence of the manner in which it was given, shall be recited in the preamble to the order, and the fact also stated that no adverse interest was represented at the time and place appointed for the hearing of the matter upon such notice: and whenever an order is made where adverse interests are represented before the Register, the fact shall be stated that the opposing parties consented thereto, or, that the adverse interest represented made no opposition to the granting of such order.

IX—NOTIFICATION TO ASSIGNEE OF HIS APPOINTMENT.

It shall be the duty of the Register, immediately upon the appointment of an Assignee, as prescribed in Sections 12 and 13 of the act (should he not be present at such meeting), to notify him by personal or mail service of his appointment; and in such notification the Assignee so appointed shall be required to give notice forthwith to the Court or Register of his acceptance or rejection of the trust.

X—TESTIMONY—HOW TAKEN.

The examination of witnesses before a Register in Bankruptcy may be conducted by the party in person, or by his counsel or attorney, and the witnesses shall be subject to examination and cross-examination, which shall be had in conformity with the mode now adopted in courts of law. The depositions upon such examination shall be taken down in writing by the Register in the form of narrative, unless he determines that the examination shall be by question and answer in special instances, and when completed shall be read over to the witness and signed by him in the presence of the Register upon the deposition. Any questions which may be objected to shall be noted by the Register upon the deposition, but he shall not have power to decide upon the competency, materiality, or relevancy of the question; and the Court shall have power to deal with the costs of incompetent, immaterial, or irrelevant depositions, or parts of them, as may be just. In case of refusal of a witness to attend, or to testify before a Register, the same proceedings may be had as are now authorized with respect to witnesses to be produced on examination before an examiner of any of the Courts of the United States on written interrogatories.

XI—MINUTES BEFORE REGISTER—FILING, &C.

A memorandum made of each act performed by a Register shall be in suitable form, to be entered upon the minute-book of the Court, and shall be forwarded to the Clerk of the Court not later than by mail the next day after the act has been performed. Whenever an issue is raised before the Register in any proceedings, either of fact or law, he shall cause the same to be stated in writing in the manner required by the fourth and fifth sections of the act, and certify the same forthwith to the District Judge for his decision. The pendency of the issue undecided before a Judge shall not necessarily suspend or delay other proceedings before the Register or Court in the case.

XII—ACCOUNTS FOR SERVICES OF REGISTER AND MARSHAL.

Every Register shall keep an accurate account of his traveling and incidental expenses, and those of any clerk or other officer attending him in the performance of his duties in any case or number of cases which may be referred to him; and shall make return of the same under oath, with proper vouchers (when vouchers can be procured) on the first Tuesday in each month; and the Marshal shall make his return, under oath, of his actual and necessary expenses in the service of every warrant addressed to him, and for custody of property, publication of notices, and other services, and other actual and necessary expenses paid by him, with vouchers therefor whenever practicable, and also with a statement that the amounts charged by him are just and reasonable.

XIII—MARSHAL AS MESSENGER.

It shall be the duty of the Marshal as Messenger to take possession of the property of the bankrupt, and to prepare, within three days of the time of taking such possession, a complete inventory of all the property, and to return it as soon as completed. The time for making the inventory and return may be enlarged, under proper circumstances, by special order of the District Court. He shall also, in case the bankrupt is absent, or cannot be found, prepare a schedule of the names and residences of his creditors, and the amount due to each, from the books or other papers of the bankrupt that may be seized by him under his warrant, and from any other source of information; but all statements upon which his return shall be made, shall be in writing, and sworn to by the parties making them, before one of the registers in bankruptcy of the Court, or a Commissioner of the Courts of the United States. In cases of voluntary bankruptcy, the Marshal may appoint special deputies to act as he may designate, in one or more cases, as messengers, for the purpose of causing the notices to be published and served as required in the eleventh section of the act and for no other purpose. In giving the notices required by the third subdivision of the eleventh section of the act, it shall be sufficient to give the names, residences, and the amount of debts (in figures) due the several creditors, so far as known, and no more.

XIV—PETITIONS AND AMENDMENTS.

All petitions, and the schedules filed therewith, shall be printed or written out plainly, and without abreviation, or interlineation, except where such abbreviation or interlineation may be for the purpose of reference, and whenever any amendments are allowed they shall be written and signed by the petitioner on a separate paper, in the same manner as the original schedules were signed and verified; and if the amendments are made to different schedules, the amendments to each schedule shall be made separately, with proper reference to the schedule proposed to be amended, and each amendment shall be verified by the oath of the petitioner in the same manner as the original schedules.

XV—PRIORITY OF ACTIONS—(INVOLUNTARY BANKRUPTCY.)

Whenever two or more petitions shall be filed by creditors against a common debtor alleging separate acts of bankruptcy committed by said debtor on different days within six months prior to the filing of said petitions, and the debtor shall appear and show cause against an adjudication of bankruptcy against him on the petitions, that petition shall be the first heard and tried which alleges the commission of the earliest act of bankruptcy; and in case the several acts of bankruptcy are alleged in the different petitions to have been committed on the same day, the Court before which the same are pending may order them to be considered, and proceed to a hearing as upon one petition; and if an adjudication of bankruptcy be made upon either petition, or for the commission of a single act of bankruptcy; it shall not be necessary to proceed to a hearing upon the remaining petitions unless proceedings be taken by the debtor for the purpose of causing such adjudication to be annulled or vacated.

XVI—FILING PETITIONS IN DIFFERENT DISTRICTS.

In case two or more petitions shall be filed against the same individual in different districts, the first hearing shall be had in the district in which the debtor has his domicil; and such petition may be amended by inserting an allegation of an act of bankruptcy committed at an earlier date than that first alleged, if such earlier act is charged in either of the other petitions; and in case of two or more petitions against the same firm in different courts, each having jurisdiction over the case, the petition first filed shall be first heard, and may be amended by the insertion of an allegation of an earlier act of bankruptcy than that first alleged, if such earlier act is charged in either of the other petitions; and in either case, the proceedings upon the other petitions may be stayed until an adjudication is made upon the petition first heard; and the Court which makes the first adjudication of bankruptcy shall retain jurisdiction over all proceedings therein until the same shall be closed. In case two or more petitions for adjudication of bankruptcy shall be filed in different districts by different members in the same copartnership for an adjudication of the bankruptcy of said copartnership, the Court, in which the petition is first filed, having jurisdiction, shall take and retain jurisdiction over all proceedings in such bankruptcy until the same shall be closed; and if such petitions shall be filed in the same district, action shall be first had upon the one first filed.

XVII—CONCERNING REDEMPTIONS OF PROPERTY AND COMPOUNDING CLAIMS.

Whenever it may be deemed for the benefit of the estate of a bankrupt to redeem and discharge any mortgage or other pledge, or deposit, or lien upon any property, real or personal, or to relieve said property from any conditional contract, and to tender performance of the conditions thereof, or to compound any debts or other claims, or securities due, or belonging to the estate of the bankrupt, the assignee, or the bankrupt, or any creditor who has proved his debt, may file his petition therefor in the office of the Clerk of the District Court; and, thereupon, the Court shall appoint a suitable time and place for the hearing thereof, notice of which shall be given in some newspaper, to be designated by the Court, at least ten days before the hearing, so that all creditors and other persons interested may appear and show cause, if any they have, why an order should not be passed by the Court upon the petition, authorizing such act on the part of the assignee.

XVIII—PROCEEDINGS IN CASE OF COPARTNERSHIPS.

In case one or more members of a copartnership refuse to join in a petition to have the firm declared bankrupt, the party refusing shall be entitled to resist the prayer of the petition in the same manner as if the petition had been filed by a creditor of the partnership, and notice of the filing of the petition shall be given to him in the same manner as provided by law and by these rules in the case of a debtor petitioned against; and he shall have the right to appear at the time fixed by the Court for the hearing of the petition, and to make proof, if he can, that the copartnership is not insolvent, or has not committed an act of bankruptcy, and to take all other defenses which any debtor proceeded against is entitled to take by the provisions of the act; and in case an adjudication of bankruptcy is made upon the petition, such copartner shall be required to furnish to the Marshal, as Messenger, a schedule of his debts and an inventory of his property in the same manner as is required by the act in cases of debtors against whom adjudication of bankruptcy shall be made.

XIX—DUTIES OF ASSIGNEES.

The assignee shall, immediately on entering upon his duties, prepare a complete inventory of all the property of the bankrupt that comes into his possession; and all sales of the same shall be by public auction, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. Every assignee shall keep full, exact, and regular books of account of all receipts, payments, and expenditures of money by him, and shall make report to the Court, within twenty days after receiving the deed of assignment, of the articles set off to the bankrupt by him, according to the provisions of the fourteenth section of this act, with the estimated value of each article, and any creditor may take exceptions to the determination of the assignee within twenty days after the filing of the report.

XX—COMPOSITION WITH CREDITORS—(ARBITRATION.)

Whenever an assignee shall make application to the Court for authority to submit a controversy arising in the settlement of demands against the bankrupt's estate, or of debts due to it, to the determination of arbitrators, or for authority to compound and settle such controversy by agreement with the other party, the subject-matter of the controversy and the reasons why the assignee thinks it proper and most for the interest of the creditors that it should be settled by arbitration or otherwise, shall be set forth clearly and distinctly in the application; and the Court, upon examination of the same, may immediately proceed to take testimony and make an order thereon, or may direct the assignee to give notice of the application, either by publication or by mail, or both, to the creditors who have proved their claims, to appear and show cause, on a day to be named in the order and notice, why the application should not be granted, and may make such order thereon as may be just and proper.

XXI—DISPOSAL OF PROPERTY BY ASSIGNEE.

In making sales of personal property, the assignee shall give at least ten days' notice of the time and place of the sale, and of the articles to be sold, by advertisement in one or more newspapers, to be designated by the Court or by a Register, and by posted handbills, or otherwise, as he may think best for the interests of the estate, or as the Court may order; and he shall give like notice of the sale of any real estate at least twenty days before such sale. Upon his application to the Court, and for good cause shown, the assignee may be authorized to sell any specified portion of the bankrupt's estate at private sale. The Court, by order in special cases, may dispense with newspaper and handbill advertisements. In making sale of the franchise of a corporation, it may be offered in fractional parts, or in certain numbers of shares, corresponding to the number of shares in the bankrupt corporation. And in making sale of the real estate of a bankrupt, the assignee shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Court offer the same in lots or parcels, if it exists in separate parcels, in such manner as may be for the interest of the creditors of the estate.

XXII—PERISHABLE PROPERTY.

In all cases where goods or other articles come into possession of the messenger, or assignee, which are perishable, or liable to deterioration in value, the Court may, upon application, in its discretion, order the same to be sold, and the proceeds deposited in Court.

XXIII—SERVICE OF NOTICE.

The notice provided by the eighteenth section of the act, shall be served by the Marshal or his deputy, and notices to the creditors of the time and place of meeting provided by the section, shall be given through the mail by letter, signed by the Clerk of the Court

Every envelope containing a notice sent by the Clerk or Messenger shall have printed on it a direction to the Postmaster at the place to which it is sent, to return the same within ten days unless called for.

XXIV—OPPOSITION TO DISCHARGE.

A creditor opposing the application of a bankrupt for discharge, shall enter his appearance in opposition thereto on the day when the creditors are required to show cause, and shall file his specification of the grounds of his opposition, in writing, within ten days thereafter, unless the time shall be enlarged by order of the District Court in the case, and the Court shall thereupon make an order of the entry of said case for trial on the docket of the District Court, and the time within which the same shall be heard and decided.

XXV—SECOND AND THIRD MEETING OF CREDITORS.

Whenever any bankrupt shall apply for his discharge, within three months from the date of his being adjudged a bankrupt, under the provisions of the twenty-ninth section of the act, the Court may direct that the second and third meetings of creditors of said bankrupt required by the twenty-seventh and twenty-eighth sections of said act shall be had on the day which may by fixed in the order of notice for the creditors to appear and show cause why a discharge should not be granted such bankrupt; and the notices of such meeting shall be sufficient if it be added to the notice to show cause, that the second and third meetings of said creditors shall be had before Register upon the same day that cause may be shown against the discharge, or upon some previous days or day.

XXVI—APPEALS.

Appeals in equity from the District to the Circuit Court, and from the Circuit to the Supreme Court of the United States, shall be regulated by the rules governing appeals in equity in the Courts of the United States. Any supposed creditor who takes an appeal to the Circuit Court from the Court rejecting his claim, in whole or in part, according to the provisions of the eighth section of the act, shall give notice of his intention to enter the appeal within ten days from the entry of the final decision of the District Court upon his claim; and he shall file his appeal in the Clerk's office of the Circuit Court within ten days thereafter, setting forth a statement in writing of his claim in the manner prescribed by said section, and the assignee shall plead or answer thereto in like manner within ten days after the statement shall be filed. Every issue thereon shall be made up in the decision of the District Court, and the cause placed upon the docket thereof, and shall be heard and decided in the same manner as other actions at law.

XXVII—IMPRISONED DEBTOR.

If at the time of preferring his petition the debtor shall be imprisoned, the Court, upon his application, may order him to be produced upon habeas corpus by the jailer or any officer in whose custody he may be, before the Register, for the purpose of testifying in any matter relating to his bankruptcy, and if committed after the filing of his petition upon process in any civil action founded upon a claim provrble in bankruptcy, the Court may, upon like application, discharge him from such imprisonment. If the petitioner, during the pendency of the proceedings in bankruptcy, be arrested or imprisoned upon process in any civil action, the District Court upon his application, may issue a writ of habeas corpus to bring him before the Court to ascertain whether such process has been issued for the collection of any claim provable in bankruptcy, and if so provable he shall be discharged; if not, he shall be remanded to the custody in which he may lawfully be. Before granting the order for discharge, the Court shall cause notice to be served upon the creditor, or his attorney, so as to give him an opportunity of appearing and being heard before the granting of the orde.

XXVIII—DEPOSIT AND PAYMENT OF MONEYS.

The District Court in each district shall designate certain National banks, if there are any within the judicial district, or if there be none, then some other safe depository, in which all moneys received by assignees, or paid into Court in the course of any proceedings in bankruptcy, shall be deposited; and every assignee, and the Clerk of said Court shall deposit all sums received by them severally, on account of any bankrupt's estate, in one designated depository, and every Clerk and assignee shall make a report to the Court of the funds received by him, and of deposits made by him, on the first Monday of every month. No moneys so deposited shall be drawn from such depository unless upon a check or warrant, signed by the Clerk of the Court, or by an assignee, and countersigned by the Judge of the Court, or one of the Registers designated for that purpose, stating the date, the sum, and the account for which it is drawn; and an entry of the substance of such check or warrant, with the date thereof, the sum drawn for, and the account for which it is drawn, shall be forthwith made in a book kept for that purpose by the assignee or the Clerk; and all checks and drafts shall be entered in the order of time in which they are drawn, and shall be numbered in the case of each estate. A copy of this rule shall be furnished to the depository so designated, and also the name of any Register authorized to countersign said checks.

XXIX—PREPAYMENT OR SECURITY OF FEES.

The fees of the Register, Marshal and Clerk, shall be paid or secured in all cases before they shall be compelled to perform the duties required of them by the parties requiring such service; and in case of witnesses their fees shall be tendered or paid at the time of the service of the summons or subpœna, and shall include their traveling expenses to and from the place at which they may be summoned to attend. The Court may order the whole, or such portion of the fees and costs in such case, to be paid out of the fund in Court in such case, as shall seem just.

XXX—AS TO FEES AND COSTS.

To the Clerk of the Court—For each notice required to be sent by mail when signed by the Clerk, ten cents; the postage to be prepaid by the party required to give such notice.

To the Clerk and Register—For every copy of any paper in proceedings in Bankruptcy, twenty-five cents for certifying the same, and in addition thereto, ten cents for each folio of 100 words.

To the Register—For every order made where notice is required to be given, and for certifying copy of the same to the Clerk, one dollar.

RUMORS ABOUT MAXIMILIAN.

Threat of General Marquez.

Santa Anna's Pronunciamento.

Juarists Repulsed at Iturbide,

NEW YORK, June 19.—The Brownsville Ranchero says that El Mexicano of the 12th, reports Santa Anna off Vera Cruz. It is reported that Maximilian had asked for a private interview with Juarez, for the purpose of disclosing important State secrets. Maximilian was convicted on the night of the 3d inst., and sentenced to be shot on the morning of the 4th, with Miramon and Mejia.

General Marquez, commanding the City of Mexico, had executed General O'Herron, commander of the post, for treason and correspondence with the Liberals. He has also arrested one hundred and sixty Liberal sympathizers in the city and threatens to execute them and burn the capitol if Maximilian and his Generals are hanged. Mejia selected Escobedo as his counsel who refused to serve him, saying, "he'd see him d—d."

The Herald's special advices from Queretaro to June 1st, state that the trial of Maximilian, Miramon and Mejia was nominally postponed till June 4th, really until after the fall of the City of Mexico and Vera Cruz. Maximilian is in better health and hopeful.

The Express has the following through private, and it says reliable sources:

Juarez having heard of the pronuncimento issued by the Governor of Tampico in favor of Santa Anna, dispatched a large force against the former place on the morning of the 6th. The Juarist Generals Hinjogee and Pavon attacked the fort of Iturbide, the small garrison shouting the war cry of "Viva Santa Anna, viva la Republic." They repulsed the party, killing a large number, and caused the rest to fly. The defeated Juarists went to Panuco, where they remained awaiting reinforcements from Queretaro, which were expected to reach them by the 20th.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The Herald's special from San Luis Potosi of the 3d, says: The probabilities grow greater that the trials will be postponed on one pretext or another till after the fall of Mexico and Vera Cruz, and the arrival of the American Minister. Meanwhile, to allay excitement and satisfy the army who clamor for Maximilian's blood, accounts of his execution are constantly circulated.

The siege of Mexico is still going on. Nearly all of Escobedo's army, and the whole of Corona's, with the exception of 3,000 cavalry, were sent to the State of Jalisco to bring Locerdo to terms. Diaz can carry the Capital by assault if he chooses.

NEW ORLEANS, June 19.—A newspaper published at Guadalupe, concludes an article on Europe as follows: "Heretofore she threatened us, now she implores us; before she looked on us with contempt, now she is on her knees before us. The heads of Maximilian and his Generals are demanded by the Mexican nation. The Mexican press congratulate themselves that no European power will be able to coerce them in any way." So far the Liberal press say nothing about the United States.

WASHINGTON, June 19.—The Department of State has information that the court martial in the case of Maximilian has for the present been suspended.

Burning of American Theatre

Several Persons Crushed by Falling Walls.

PHILADELPHIA, June 19.—The American Varieties Theater, Walnut street, above Eighth, under the management of Mr. Fox, is in flames, with much surrounding property. The alarm was soon communicated to the audience, which fortunately was small, and succeeded in escaping, though many were bruised in the rush to the front door. In a short time the whole interior was in a blaze. It is believed all the performers escaped, though it is rumored that Fattie Stewart is missing. Several buildings at the rear were damaged by water and fire, but those on Walnut street escaped through the efforts of the firemen.

About 10:30 the front wall of the building fell with an awful crash. About half a dozen persons were carried away injured, but it cannot be ascertained how many were crushed to death beneath the ruins, to remove which will take several hours.

FROM HAVANA.

Hayti Quiet--Revolutionary Movements in Venezuela---New Gold Discoveries ---Scarcity of Rain in Jamaica.

NEW YORK, June 19.—The steamer Eagle, from Havana on the 15th, has arrived.

Haytien advices to the 4th report the country quiet. President Salnave is very popular. The Constitution is to be revised before holding an election. Accounts from Balize, Honduras, say law and order prevailed in consequence of the prompt arrival of troops from Jamaica.

Venezuela advices to May 24th say the revolutionary movements in the State of Anagua were subdued without bloodshed. Congress authorized the Executive to contract for an extraordinary loan. The Upata gold mines were yielding handsomely. A rumor at Caracas said great discoveries of gold had been made, and the reports had been the subject of discussion by Congress.

Jamaica advices to May 24th complain of the scarcity of rain. The crops will be less than the lowest estimates made. There are, however, hopes of an abundant coffee crop.

Monetary affairs at Havana are improving. Sugar firm and tending upwards; No. 12 is quoted at 7½@8 reals.

Duel Near Charleston.

CHARLESTON, June 19.—There was a duel fought this afternoon a short distance above the city, between Edward Roe, formerly of Columbia, and Theodore Boeg, of Charleston. Roe was wounded, it is supposed mortally, at the first fire. Boeg promptly surrendered himself to the civil authorities.

From Wilmington, N. C.

WILMINGTON, June 19.—It has been raining almost continually for two days, causing great damage to the growing crops.

The action of Judge Barnard was the reverse of that reported the other day. He adjourned the Court because a negro was not put on the jury.

The President to Visit Hartford.

HARTFORD, June 19.—President Johnson will return from Boston by way of Hartford, and will arrive in this city on Tuesday next. He will visit the General Assembly, and remain over night in the city. The city government voted to give the President an appropriate reception.

THE INDIAN WAR.

Outrages and Murders---Gen. Custer Repulsed.

JUNCTION CITY, KAN., June 19.—A letter, dated Fort Wallace, June 12th, reports a number of Indian outrages in that vicinity. On the 3d, Fanor and Thompson, of Pond Creek, were killed and scalped between Pond and Goose Creeks. On the 6th, two men from the mines, names unknown, were killed within half a mile of the same place. On the 11th, the coach from the West, having on board Lieutenant Bell, three soldiers, a lady passenger, the driver and guard, was attacked by twenty-five or thirty Indians, twenty-five miles from Fort Wallace. One soldier was killed. The others dismounted and fought the Indians four miles, and finally repulsed them, killing two. It is reported that on the 17th a Government train was attacked eighteen miles west of Fort Harker, one man killed and his body horribly mutilated. The Indians are so troublesome that stage drivers refuse to go out, and eight of them deserted their coaches. It was rumored at Pond creek that General Custer had been repulsed by the Indians, who came down in force from the Platte Valley.

DISTILLERIES SEIZED.—The distillery of John Stull, two miles from Port Washington, Tuscarawas county, Ohio, was closed up last week, by Internal Revenue Inspector Bennett. Stull had been manufacturing whisky—running his distillery at night—thus evading the watchfulness of the local U. S. Assessors. The distillery is a complete one, producing some seventy-five gallons of whisky every night. A man by the name of Levi Davis, Guernsey county, near Middletown, on the National pike, has also been caught perpetrating the same offense, and reported. These distilleries, with all the stock on hands, will be sold for the benefit of the Government.

THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.

Are now constructing a Railroad from

OMAHA, NEBRASKA,

Westward towards the Pacific Ocean, making with its connections an unbroken line

ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

The Company now offer a limited amount of their

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,

Having thirty years to run, and bearing annual interest, payable on the first day of January and July, in the city of New York, at the rate of

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,

AT

Ninety Cents on the Dollar.

This road was completed from Omaha 305 miles west on the 1st of January, 1867, and is fully equipped, and trains are regularly running over it. The Company has now on hand sufficient Iron, Ties, etc., to finish the remaining portion to the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, 212 miles, which is under contract to be done September 1st of this year, and it is expected that the entire road will be in running order from Omaha to its western connection with the Central Pacific, now being rapidly built eastward from Sacramento, Cal., during 1870.

Means of the Company.

Estimating the distance to be built by the Union Pacific to be 1,565 miles, the United States Government issues its Six per cent. Thirty-year Bonds to the Company as the road is finished at the average rate of about $28,250 per mile, amounting to $44,208,000.

The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an equal amount, and at the same time, which by special Act of Congress are made a First Mortgage on the entire line, the bonds of the United States, being subordinate to them.

The Government makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, amounting to 20,032,000 estimated to be worth $30,000,000, making the total resources, exclusive of the capital, $118,416,000; but the full value of the lands cannot now be realized.

The authorized Capital Stock of the Company is one hundred million dollars, of which five millions have already been paid in, and of which it is not supposed that more than twenty-five millions at most will be required.

The cost of the road is estimated by competent engineers to be about one hundred million dollars, exclusive of equipment.

Prospects for Business.

The railroad connection between Omaha and the East is now complete, and the earnings of the Union Pacific on the sections already finished for the month of May were $261,782. These sectional earnings as the road progresses will much more than pay the interest on the Company's bonds, and the through business over the only line of railroad between the Atlantic and Pacific must be immense.

Value and Security of the Bonds.

The Company respectfully submit, that the above statement of facts fully demonstrates the security of their Bonds, and as additional proof they would suggest that the Bonds now offered are less than ten million dollars on 517 miles of road, on which over twenty million dollars have already been expended—on 330 miles of this road the cars are now running, and the remaining 187 miles are nearly completed.

At the present rate of premium on gold these Bonds pay an annual interest on the present cost of

and it is believed that on the completion of the road, like the Government Bonds, they will go above par. The Company intend to sell but a limited amount at the present low rate and retain the right to advance the price at their option.

Subscriptions will be received in New York by the CONTINENTAL NATIONAL BANK, No. 7 Nassau St., CLARK, DODGE & CO., Bankers, 51 Wall St., JOHN J. CISCO & SON, Bankers, No. 33 Wall St., and by BANKS AND BANKERS generally throughout the United States, of whom maps and descriptive pamphlets may be obtained. They will also be sent by mail from the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau Street, New York, on application. Subscribers will select their own Agents in whom they have confidence, who alone will be responsible to them for the safe delivery of the Bonds.

TREASURER,

THE country is waiting to see ANDREW JOHNSON restore to office the infamous Mayor MONROE, of New Orleans riot memory, and others of similar notoriety. Of course an enlightened sense of duty will not prompt this action by the President, but qualities of head and heart which on former occasions Mr. JOHNSON has displayed in his office, and in pursuance of a purpose relating less to the good of the country than the gratification of feelings arising out of the wrong headedness for which he is peculiar.

HON. L. D. CAMPBELL, Mr. SEWARD's Minister to Mexico, is the last "bad egg." He went as far as New Orleans, but when directed to proceed to his destination he declined, and virtually set himself up in defiance of our Government. The post seems not an easy one to fill. "JIM." STEEDMAN was offered it, but he declined, "private affairs" forbidding. In selecting CAMPBELL, Mr. SEWARD evinced bad judgment. We have sometimes sent poor sticks to Mexico, but never so poor a one as CAMPBELL. Circumstances dictated the selection of a first-class man for the position.

THE cable announces the occurrence, in the city of Birmingham, England, of a sudden and formidable outburst of violence among the people. How it began, or what was the immediate friction that lighted the match, we are not informed. The cable only tells us that it was an Anti-Catholic riot, and that it had assumed such proportions that large bodies of military were put under orders to proceed to the spot and suppress it at all hazards. The information is too meager to furnish much material for reflection, or rather, while it does furnish much material for reflection, the circumstances are too little known to give direction to it. But this one remark we offer—and it will answer just as well should it prove to be a Catholic instead of an Anti-Catholic one—that the organized and persistent effort to keep one people distinct from all others with whom they live—cultivating antagonistic ideas, maintaining a different nationality, educating at different schools, fostering hereditary prejudices, inflaming the dissocial passions and hostile religious prejudices—is a dangerous policy in any country. By preventing assimilation, it keeps up political ill will, and offers a standing menace to peace and good order. It cannot, therefore, be an evidence of patriotism, but rather of the reverse. We make this remark on the hypothesis that the riot, reported by telegraph, originated in the angry sectarian feelings engendered by such a course as we have cursorily described.

IT has been decided in Cabinet Council—Secretary STANTON only dissenting—that the civil officers removed by the Commanders administering the laws of Congress concerning Reconstruction, shall be restored; and the President will speedily restore them. To make the proceeding complete, the officers thus snubbed should be removed and others, selected for their subserviency to the President—if such can be found—appointed in their stead.

This proceeding is in direct conflict with arguments and doctrines of Mr. JOHNSON's Veto Message on the law in question; but consistency is not one of the peculiarities of his public character. It is in conflict also with the design of Congress in passing the law—the design which he then attributed to Congress and the law, and on which he based his principal objection. The President, by his Attorney, bases his action not on constitutional grounds, but simply on interpretation. There would seem to be nothing left for Congress, therefore, but to move right forward and pass a law or amend this one so that no interpretation can defeat the object intended to be accomplished. It may set hard on the South—it may produce a state of things greatly to be regretted; but if it does, the South will have Mr. JOHNSON to thank. Congress, in its work of restoration, has twice been foiled by the President. Each time severer measures have been the consequence. There is no reason to expect the result will be different in this instance.

MORE NUISANCE IN THE MARKET

As the warm weather approaches, the necessity for a competent inspector, for every article sold in our markets, is made more apparent. Vegetables are daily sold at prices entirely nominal, and often so low that they are sure to attract the attention of persons of slender means; when in fact they are only fit to be cast into a manure yard. We have seen good spinach mixed with rotten spinach, and asparagus artfully arranged in bunches, the outside of the bunches composed of fresh plants, whilst the interior of the bunch was the refuse of several preceding days, and when separated from the good, found to be entirely unfit for food of any kind. Some hucksters are buying strawberries that have been picked several days and arranging them in boxes with good articles, placing a few choice in the bottom of the boxes with alternate layers of poor and good, a few good berries appearing on the top. At this season of the year people generally indulge largely in green vegetables of all descriptions. Sickness universally follows, not so much the indulgence as from the quality eaten. Our market is abundantly supplied with everything. Gardeners bring in nearly every day choice, fresh articles. What they cannot sell to consumers the hucksters buy and keep on hand day after day, constantly mixing with something a little fresher, and all the time selling until they have disposed of the whole. The larger portion is sometimes entirely unfit to be eaten. If there was a proper inspector of articles this swindle could not exist, and until there is one consumers should carefully scrutinize every article they buy, no matter how small.

THE RULE FOR GRANTING LICENSES.

A new list of applicants for license to sell liquors is published. It might be supposed, from the number of licenses already granted, that the real and pressing necessity for drinking facilities in the county were pretty well supplied. But the new list indicates that, whatever may be the opinion of the people on this point, there is a large number of persons who desire to engage in the business.

It would be gratifying to know on what grounds licenses to sell intoxicating liquors are granted. General laws—and the license law among them—are designed to promote the public good. This then should be the controlling consideration, and Commissioners are bound to give it its full weight in their action. They are under obligation to their constituents to take this into consideration first, even if no formal remonstrance is urged against the license, and the point should be clear to them before they decide. And their constituents will hold them responsible if, without public necessity or contrary to the public good, they license persons to sell liquor. The interest and desire of the applicant should be made secondary to the public good, in deciding on the applications.

Licenses should not be granted on the mere application of an individual made for his own personal profit. The fact, however well proved, that the applicant is a poor man, or a widow woman or a maimed soldier, should not secure a license, unless the public good requires it; and that it does require should be clearly made out. If evidence of this be lacking, the application should be refused, and a respectful remonstrance from the locality where the business is proposed to be established, should have a great influence toward insuring such refusal.

The Court, that formerly had charge of this important business, discharged its duties in the matter, as well as could be expected. We hope the Commissioners now having it in hand by the new law, will prove not less faithful to the interests and order of the community. We have heard of licenses being granted in some cases by them, which had been refused, in similar circumstances, and to the same parties by the Court. Some cases of this sort may be accounted for by the inexperience of Commissioners in their new function. And it is hoped that by this time they have acquired experience that will enable them to meet the just expectations of their constituents, by keeping the number of licenses to the lowest practicable figure and by dispensing them with a predominant regard to the public good—the greatest good of the greatest number.

CINCINNATI is getting to be nearly as bad as Chicago—four suicides and two terrible murders being the record for two days.

FOR nearly two weeks the Chicago papers have contained daily announcements like the following: "Our flour market is extremely dull at a further nominal decline of 25c per barrel."

THE Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company have commenced work in Washington on their branch road, which is to connect that city with their main line at Point of Rocks.

THE Rochester papers say that Mr. Greeley, who made an agricultural speech at Brockport, was frequently interrupted by inquiries about "Jeff. Davis."

THE report that Dr. Durant has been relieved of his position as manager of the Union Pacific Railroad has been generally published. We now learn from official sources that Mr. Dillon, has been elected in his place to take charge of the work of construction, together with two other directors, and that Dr. Durant still retains his position as Vice President of the road.

IMPORTANT SOUTHERN MOVEMENT.—Governors Orr, Patton and Sharkey, Judges Fisher and Yerger, Senator Alcorn and other politicians of Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia and South Carolina, are reported to have undertaken the organization of a new party which is to act independently of Democrats and Radicals. Senator Alcorn has set the ball in motion in an opening speech at Oxford, Miss.

THE arrival of emigrants at New York up to the 12th instant were 100,267. Each succeeding month shows an increase. It appears to be true of the immigrants that they are people of better character, more skill and more means than usual, and that a large proportion leave the city immediately after arrival for the interior. The country wants them all, and has profitable work enough to employ them and their relatives, to the remotest cousin.

A CHICAGO paper in the course of an editorial article, ably discussing the Cole-Hiscock case, says: "A case of this kind"—that is, a wife seduced by a friend of her husband—"occurred within a few weeks, when there was at first a demand for $10,000, and, after a long negotiation, receipts for damages were executed upon the payment of $85." They bring everything to a money standard in Chicago, and here we have due notification of the scale applicable to cases of this kind.

THE Philadelphia North American declares that when the impeachment project was first broached, it opposed it, "because at that time President Johnson had done nothing to render him liable to impeachment, and because we had much more important work then to attend to, which would have been materially interfered with by our undertaking the task of impeachment." "But," continues the same paper, "events have occurred since that date calculated to change the opinion of moderate men, and to induce the belief that the Republican party cannot in common justice shrink from the issue itself has provoked."

A NOVEL INSURANCE COMPANY.—Detectives George D. Calanan, Joshua Taggart and Edward G. Carlin and Thomas B. Davis, all experienced police officers, have formed an association in Philadelphia to be known as the "Protective Police Insurance." A number of the leading merchants of that city have given the association liberty to refer to them for their ability and integrity, and it is proposed to commence the business at once, ample means being now on deposit for that purpose. Competent watchmen will be appointed, and they will assume charge of a store from the time it is closed until it is opened in the morning. A policy of insurance will issue to all who place their property under the care of the association, and in the event of a robbery, absolute indemnity will be made. This is certainly a novel institution, and will doubtless pay as good dividends as a fire insurance company.

Strawberries.

The strawberry crop of the present season, in this vicinity, is very promising. The berry, generally, is larger, and the yield far exceeds that of years past. Prices now are nearly fifty per cent. lower than they were last year, when the season was sending to the market its full ripened crop. It is believed that within the next ten days very choice strawberries will be a drag on the market at ten cents per box.

Sharp Rejoinder.

Lately General Buford reported to the Government that the Indians were comparatively well disposed and peaceable, only when provoked to commit offenses. To this United States Senator Thayer has telegraphed the following sharp reply:

"If General Buford has reported what the telegraph attributes to him in regard to Indian matters, he is guilty of reckless misrepresentation or criminal stupidity. A warfare is now being carried on upon the plains by savage Indians upon small parties of defenceless settlers and upon the railroad surveying parties and laborers, barbarous and unprovoked. The Government must not be deluded by any such reports as Buford's.

(Signed) "JOHN M. THAYER, United States Senator."

July Session of Congress.

Our Washington advices speak as though it was pretty well settled that a July session of Congress will be held, as the result of the Attorney General's latest opinion. Senator Fessenden, it is said, has written that if the necessity grows out of reconstruction he will be there; but if impeachment and other similar matters are to be considered, he will stay away. It is not probable the Senator will stay away, as the session will be mainly devoted to amending the reconstruction laws so as to carry out the will of Congress, acting for the people. The Chicago Tribune, of Tuesday, says:

Fourteen United States Senators, who have been with Senator Wade's excursion party at various points, all express a determination to be present at the July session of Congress. Those who were with Mr. Wade yesterday joined him in a telegram to General Schenck, of the National Congressional Committee, recommending him to advise all Republican members to be present in July.

It is suggested that financial questions may possibly be agitated, but not at the instance of the Secretary of the Treasury, who will have nothing new to propose before the December session. If any action is proposed at the July session it will be, it is thought, in the direction of repealing the authority of April 12, 1866, to withdraw $4,000,000 per month of the greenback currency, so as to settle the question of the non-contraction of this circulation for at least a year or two to come. In his recent Boston letter the Secretary himself pays deference to the popular opinion and the indirectly expressed wishes of Congress last winter on this subject, and there would be no impropriety in relieving him of the exercise of all discretion on the subject. It is not improbable that he would really prefer to have such action taken, if the subject should be agitated at all.

WHATEVER may be said of New York society or the community as a whole, it must be conceded that the church organizations are not to be accused of extraordinary parsimony. The Madison Square Presbyterian church gave last year to benevolent purposes $96,000, besides paying its current expenses which amounted to $16,000. Dr. Tyng's church is of equal liberality, while the various benevolent institutions growing out of the efforts of New York piety acknowledge the receipt of more than seven hundred thousand dollars. Referring to other institutions, which are of a national rather than a metropolitan character, we find the Bible Society received in donations two hundred and eighty thousand dollars, the Tract Society one hundred and sixty thousand dollars, while other benevolent associations report enough to swell the figures to nearly five millions.

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

Arkansas wants three things—a hundred thousand Irishmen to build railroads, a hundred thousand Germans to raise corn, and a hundred thousand freedmen to raise cotton. To these might be added twenty thousand Yankees to direct the work.

The latest advices from India report that a famine is feared in the district of Upper Burmah, but that the district of Orissa, which last year was visited by a most devastating famine, is rapidly recovering from its troubles.

It is reported that every doctor of respectable practice in Washington has under treatment from twenty to fifty cases of typhoid fever. The disease is unusually fatal.

In the Circuit Court of the United States for the District of Maryland, Judge Giles, the case of Kennedy vs. Gibson, arising out of the failure of the Merchants' National Bank of Washington, involving the question of the individual liability clause of the general national banking laws, the court rendered a lengthy opinion to the effect that no suit can be maintained under said clause until the Comptroller of the Currency has audited the accounts of the insolvent institution, and ascertained, after the notice to creditors, the amount of its liabilities.

The Great Eastern may probably again visit the United States this year. The Liverpool Albion says that negotiations are pending for the formation of a new and influential company, with a large capital, to run the Great Eastern between New York and Brest, in connection with the Paris Exhibition, as it is believed, despite the failure of the first company, there are elements of success in the undertaking.

A correspondent of the Chicago Republican gives the following as an infallible remedy for a snake bite: Take the white of an egg, stir it up thick with salt, put it on the wound, and as soon as it gets warm take it off and put on some more, and keep doing so until it takes the heat or fever all out.

A motion was made in the Supreme Court, New York, some days ago, by the defendant in the case of Alfred Kearney vs. Benjamin F. Butler, to have the action transferred from the State to the Federal Court. On Tuesday, Judge Ingraham, before whom the motion was heard, denied it. In doing so, he used the following words: "This application is not one which entitles the defendant to favor. He should be required to strictly pursue the statute, which is intended to divest the State Courts of jurisdiction, and if not complied with, such application should not be encouraged."

Raphael Semmes in a recent flag presentation speech spoke of "restoring the Star Spangled Banner to the mast-head of the merchant ships from which, in times gone by, I have so often caused it to descend." This, says the New York Times, is a pretty brag from a naval hero who for many months dodged every armed antagonist to make war on the weak, the unarmed, the unresisting, and who, when cornered at last, and forced to fight, struck his colors in his first battle.

The annual miracle of St. Januaris has not been so very successful this year after all. The liquefaction of the Neapolitan saint's blood was incomplete, a portentous black clot remained unsolved in the center of the vase, and was seen, says the London Tablet, with grief by thousands of the faithful, who deem it to be a sign of impending calamity.

The returns of each succeeding week go to show that the immigration this year will far exceed that of last season. Nearly two thousand emigrants from British and German ports were landed at Castle Garden on Monday.

It is a curious illustration of the changes which the world is rapidly undergoing—that at late advices from Australia, the shippers were working day and night to get their wheat on board for England! While in California, the great complaint has been the lack of shipping to transport their surplus grain to the Atlantic States and to Europe!

POLITICAL.

Platform of Westmoreland County Republicans—Washington County Nominations and Platform.

At the meeting of the return judges of the Westmoreland County Republican primary elections, on Monday, A. M. Fulton, Esq., was chosen Chairman of the County Executive Committee. Messrs. Robert M. Graham, Captain John Ousler and Capt. Geo. C. Mabon were appointed Legislative Conferees, to meet those from Indiana county and perfect the legislative ticket. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved 1. That the Union Republican party is a political organization, brought into existence for the purpose of carrying out the fundamental principles of free government—a party that has always testified against slavery and in favor of freedom—denounced the heresy of State Sovereignty as understood by Southern Nullifiers and their Northern allies—advocated the supremacy of the Federal Government and therefore resisted the proposition to disrupt the Union, either peaceably (as advocated in 1861 by Greeley and Cowan, as well as by self-styled Democrats), or by force of arms. The principles of this party have triumphed over the combined efforts of Southern Rebels and their Northern Sympathizers. The Union party has withstood the influence of the national patronage in the hands of a recreant and corrupt President, aided by his hired agents. In view, therefore, of its past history, its glorious work and its future mission, we declare our firm and unalterable purpose to adhere to its principles and organization until the last enemy of Republican government and free institutions has ceased an organized warfare against them.

2. That the Members of the Union party are bound to principles—not to men—and therefore we repudiate those who abandon these principles. That we believe the innocent should be protected and the guilty punished. That Horace Greeley in becoming one of the sureties of Jeff. Davis has mistaken a false sentimentality for mercy and clemency. We look upon Jeff. Davis as one of the greatest traitors any country ever produced and one of the most cruel and tyrannical Despots the world ever saw—whose treatment of Union soldiers at Andersonville, Salisbury and Libby will stand out for all time to come as the most barbarous and damning crime of any age.

3. That the Military Reconstruction Bill, passed by Congress as a means of reorganizing governments in the rebel States, meets our hearty approval; being founded on justice, and sound policy, and giving protection, as it does, to the loyal people of the South, by depriving of political power the leading rebels and enemies of the Government, and allowing only loyal men the right to vote.

4. [Indorses the administration of Governor Geary.]

5. That we deem the passage of a free Railroad law by our State Legislature as imperatively demanded by the people and inseparably connected with the development and prosperity of the State, and we hereby heartily indorse the course of our Representatives from this District during the last session upon that subject, and denounce Thomas B. Searight, the Senator from this Senatorial District, as false to the known wishes of his constituents and is another evidence that the nominees of the modern Democracy are not to be trusted.

6. That we look upon the act taking away the Charter of the Connellsville Railroad Company as an outrage too glaring to be tolerated and we demand its repeal.

7. [Pledges a hearty support to the ticket then put in nomination.]

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

The Washington County Republican Convention was held on Monday, Hon. James R. Kelley presiding, and the following ticket nominated: Assembly—John Ewing and J. R. Day, by acclamation; Sheriff—Major Henry A. Myers; Jury Commissioner—Joseph R. McLain; Treasurer—Captain James P. Hart; Commissioner—H. B. McLean; Auditor—Jos. Linton; Director of the Poor—William Davis; Coroner Captain C. W. McDaniel. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we reaffirm our unwavering faith in the principles and policy of the great Republican party of the Union, as exemplified and embodied in the action of Congress upon the great questions at issue before the country, arising out of the recent struggle for the maintenance of our national existence.

Resolved, That the official conduct of our worthy State Executive, Governor Geary, meets our cordial approbation, and fully justifies the confidence reposed in him by the loyal people of Pennsylvania.

Resolved, That our representatives, Messrs. Ewing and Day, by their unswerving devotion to the interests of their constituents, have shown themselves worthy of the high trust reposed in them, and their unanimous renomination by this convention is but a fitting tribute to their faithfulness and efficiency as public servants.

Resolved, That we are in favor of a free railroad law for the State, and hereby recommend and urge upon our representatives in the State Legislature from this district, to use their influence for the passage of such a law.

Resolved, That we cordially concur in the nomination of Hon. Thomas Nicholson, of Beaver county, as one of the candidates for the Legislature from this district.

Resolved, That we cordially join our friends in Beaver county in presenting the name of General W. W. Irwin, as a candidate for State Treasurer, having full confidence in his ability and integrity, and believing that no man in the State is more deserving of the position. Our representatives are hereby requested to support and use every honorable means to secure his election.

Resolved, That having observed the bickerings and troubles in the Democratic party since they forsook the delegate system now practiced by ourselves, we deem it expedient to make any change in our plan of nominating.

On motion of James S. Stocking, Hon. Geo. V. Lawrence and Wm. S. Alexander were appointed delegates to represent the County in the Republican State Convention to be held at Williamsport on the 26th inst., to nominate a candidate for Supreme Judge. On motion of Dr. J. W. Alexander, the delegates were instructed to use their influence to secure the nomination of Hon. Henry W. Williams of Pittsburgh.

On motion the President of the Convention appointed the following County Committee of Vigilance for the ensuing year: Wm. A. Mickey, Washington, Chairman; M. M. Brockman, Smith; James T. Hemphill, Independence; Henry C. Swart, Amwell; Capt. R. W. Parkinson, Morris; George Dorsey, East Pike Run; Johnson Elrod, Monongahela City.

CRAWFORD COUNTY.

The primary elections in Crawford county will take place to-morrow. The fight on the Senatorial question is most exciting, Hon. M. B. Lowry, of Erie, having made a vigorous campaign on the issues of an enlargement of the Erie Canal and the new county project, of both of which he is in favor. Col. McCoy is a resident of Crawford, and the county claims to be entitled to the nominee, so that beside his personal strength as a soldier candidate, he will be largely supported by those who maintain the county's right to the nomination. The contest for Assembly is narrowed down to Messrs. Espy, Chase and Beatty, the two former being members of the present Legislature.

HOSPITALITIES REFUSED.

A resolution was introduced in the Philadelphia Common Council on Monday night, extending the hospitalities of the city to Andrew Johnson, President of the United States. There was some disposition manifested to postpone the resolution indefinitely on account of the opinion promulgated by Attorney General Stanbery that morning, but it would have passed had it not been for a disloyal speech made by an opposition member of the Council from the Fifth ward. By a vote of twenty against fifteen, the resolution was lost.

GENERAL GRANT excelled himself in the speech-making line at West point on Monday, and delivered the lengthiest speech ever spoken by him, on the occasion of presenting the first prize of the graduating class of 1867 to Cadet Ruffner. He said: "Cadet Ruffner, I present to you this testimonial with great pleasure, as having been won by superior merit, placing you at the head of your class; may it be the token of your future course, in which I trust you may be foremost in the paths of duty in which your country calls."

PERSONAL.

—Gov. Tod, of Ohio, who signed the pledge and joined the Sons of Temperance two or three weeks ago, made his first temperance speech in Washington on Monday. It is spoken of as eloquent and touching.

—The New Orleans Republican expresses the hope that Congress will restore Gen. Longstreet to his full right of citizenship, and says that he is talked of for U. S. Senator from Louisiana. His letter identifying himself with the Republican party will be issued from Washington as a campaign document.

—A brother of Gov. Orr, of South Carolina, Col. John Amazin Orr, of Columbia, Miss., is one of the leaders of the Radicals in his State and will possibly be their candidate for Governor.

—The wife of Ezra Rood, of Wayne, near Detroit, Mich., died on Tuesday week, from the effects of a bee sting. She was walking in the garden in the company of another lady, when a honey bee stung her upon the ball of the eye. She screamed and fell backward, and, though every means were employed to relieve her sufferings, she expired in ten minutes.

TARGETS.—Some experiments as to the strength of targets have recently been made in England, and the nine-inch twelve-ton Armstrong gun failed to penetrate a 5½-inch plate of soft iron, backed on what is known as the Chalmers system. Half a dozen rounds were fired at twenty-five yards distance, and at the close of the experiments it was found that three of the shot were lying in front of the target, and three sticking in the backing. The full charge of forty-three pounds of powder was employed. It was only about ten days before that the seven-inch Armstrong, with a 15-pound charge, sent the Palliser shot through a plate seven inches thick, at Shoeburyness, but the plates were without backing, and were composed of two 2-inch layers of wrought iron enclosing a 3-inch layer of steel.

THE Marquis of Hastings lost £100,000 on the last Derby day. He is the present representative of the Marquis who was Governor General of India from 1812 to 1822, and who was distinguished as a soldier as well as administrator. The present Marquis has probably lost in one day, in betting, as much as his grandfather saved in ten years, while holding the most lucrative post in the gift of the Crown.

GEORGE MUIR,

Of Armstrong's Coal Works, Penn Township, Allegheny county, Pa., speaks as follows of the Rev. E. A. Wilson's Great Remedy for Consumption: I was reduced so low with Consumption that I was unable to leave my bed, and my physicians informed me that they could do nothing more for me, my case being utterly hopeless, that I had not certainly over a month to live. At this stage I was induced to try the Rev. E. A. Wilson's remedy, and to-day I am well as any man in the world. If there are any who doubt this statement, they can call and see me (as per above address) and I will give them all the particulars of my extraordinary recovery.

READ! READ! READ!

CONNELLSVILLE, PA., May 29th, 1867.
MESSRS. FAHNESTOCK & HOLTON: Pittsburgh, Pa.
Gentlemen—This is to certify that I have been a sufferer with Chronic Diarrhœa for about eighteen months, and have tried several different remedies recommended for this class of disease, and have been treated by different Physicians, and they all failed to effect a cure. About four weeks ago I was recommended to try Mishler's Herb Bitters, and I bought one bottle and have used its contents; am happy to say that I feel myself entirely cured, and quite a different man. It has arrested the complaint, and effected, I think, a permanent cure. I must add that my case was so bad that I was prevented from attending Church for some time. I am now using the Bitters on my daughter for a disease of the blood, which arose from Diptheria, having caught a severe cold while suffering with Diptheria. You are at liberty to publish the above if you see proper.
Yours truly, H. WALTER.

A ROSE OF JUNE.

never was a fairer May sweeter month of flowers,
well I marked it every day,
sunshine and its showers.
the wind-flowers speck with white woodlands and the hills, the garden-plots grow bright golden daffodils;
round the bloomy apple trees brushed my lattice-pane the humming honey bees
many a soft refrain.

"wax and wane with speed," I cried,
mellow moon of May,
in the Summer tide
for every day!
the honey suckles shed
sweetness through the air, when the roses white and red climbing everywhere—
hope will bloom at last,
you shall see O Moon
my happy, happy breast fairest rose of June!"

so the young May-moon grew old,
treasons wax and wane,
the happiness they hold little as the pain.
morning when the East was red promise of the day, and lo! upon my bed
dainty blossom lay;
of June beyond compare—
ah! what roses blow
dimpled cheeks and golden hair, violet eyes below!

never yet was rose of June blossomed all the year;
(ah, you shall see it, moon!)
lovely will appear
Winter whips the frozen fields crystal robes of white, the radiant Summer yields treasures of delight, more—when all the flowers are dead,
all the seasons o'er,
she will lift a fearless head,
amaranthine bloom arrayed,
and the shining shore!

The idea ving the garden of the hotel into the ddle of the grand salon originated enith the Princess herself. An octagon of which the salon formed one was contrived so as to inclose the rubs and flowers of the parterre on he apartments occupied by the Princess The effect of this arrangement was cent; the hangings of the walls, f the artificial ones destined to be down the next day, were of green and ted satin; innumerable chandeliers, inn with flowers, made the light most , while concealing the means of lightd over all now and then waved a brilnbow, green, orange, blue and purple, d by the electric light. At the end of t gallery thick curtains of tapestry had awn until the arrival of the Imperial when suddenly they rose as the band up "Partant pour la Syrie," and the ecame dazzling in the extreme. The Emperor, who, in the distraction afforded by the scene, ill and harassed, was attired in evening , blue coat, and black silk smalls. OHIO UNION CONVENTION

Gen. Hayes Nominated for Governor

Platform of Principles Adopted.

Impartial Manhood Suffrage Advocated.

COLUMBUS, June 19.—The following are the nominations of the Republican Convention held here to-day: Governor, R. B. Hayes, of Hamilton county; Lieutenant Governor, Samuel Galloway, of Franklin county; Supreme Judge, John Welch, of Athens county; Auditor of State, James H. Godman, of Marion county; Treasurer of State, Sidney S. Warner, of Lorain county; Attorney General, William H. West, of Logan county, Comptroller of the Treasury, Moses R. Brally, of Fulton county; Member of Board of Public Works, Philip Herzing, of Auglaize county. All but the first two are the present incumbents. The platform is as follows:

The Republican Union party of Ohio in Convention assembled, declare, First, that one of the great lessons of the war is that the American people are a nation, and not merely a confederacy of sovereign and independent States.

Second, That our existence as a nation is based on the great principles announced in the Declaration of Independence and vindicated by the Proclamation of Emancipation, the Constitutional Amendment abolishing slavery, and the spirit of republican democracy and justice which underlies the reconstruction policy of the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Congress; and which we hereby fully indorse, and which we demand shall be carried into complete effect by every needful act of additional legislation.

Third, That while we will always cherish and defend the American system of local and municipal self-government for local purposes, and a national government for national purposes, and while we are unalterably opposed to all attempts at centralization and consolidation of power anywhere, we hold that liberty and human rights constitute our great national boon, which local or State organizations must not be allowed to abridge or take away.

Fourth—That imbued with the spirit of true Democracy, and believing that the powers necessary for the purpose of attaining the ends of Government ought not to be restricted to a privileged class, but should be vested in the whole people without unjust or odious distinctions or qualifications not equally attainable by all, and further believing that these sentiments are in strict accordance with the spirit and tendency of modern civilization, we place ourselves on the simple and broad platform of impartial manhood suffrage as embodied in the proposed amendment to the State Constitution, appealing to and confiding in the intelligence, justice and patriotism of the people of Ohio to approve it at the ballot-box.

Fifth, That the American people owe a debt of lasting gratitude to the brave soldiers and sailors who, in the late struggle for our national existence, so nobly fought for our liberties, and for the privations, suffering and sacrifices which they endured, the loyal men of Ohio hereby pledge to them and to the widows and orphans of those who fell in defense of the nation our sympathies and substantial support.

Sixth, That we approve and endorse the military administration of our distinguished fellow citizen, Maj. Gen. Phil. H. Sheridan, in Louisiana and Texas, and pledge him and the military commanders in the several military districts of the South, the cordial support of the Union men of Ohio in their efforts to protect the loyal people of the late rebel States, and to secure the organization of loyal and constitutional governments in said States.

Seventh, That we freely endorse and approve of the administration of our present Governor, J. D. Cox, and extend to him our hearty thanks for the faithful and able manner in which he has discharged his official duties, and sustained the credit and honor of our noble State.

LATE NEWS ITEMS.

New York will spend about twenty thousand dollars in public display on the Fourth of July.

It is said private dispatches per cable show that the no-popery riots in Birmingham take their origin in the ritualistic controversy. The Protestants imagine that the introduction of the innovations tend to Catholicise their Church.

Governor Flanders of Louisiana, on Thursday, decided that all persons appointed to office by him, must, in addition to the oath prescribed by the State laws, take and subscribe to that promulgated in the Constitutional amendment, and sought to be enforced by the Reconstruction law. He has appointed three new State Directors for the New Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern Railroad, and three for the Opelousas and Great Western Railroad.

General Griffin and General Reynolds, of Texas, report to General Sheridan that Judge Rives, of the Ninth Judicial District of that State, in a charge to the Grand Jury of that Court, stated that he should not receive the testimony of negroes, as the law of Congress on that point was unconstitutional, and he therefore defied them. They also report the same facts against Judge Dougherty, who stated in the headquarters of General Reynolds, "That as regards the testimony of negroes, he would not recognize the law or authority of Congress, and will be bound only to the sovereign State of Texas." Reports of a like character are coming in almost daily from the different sections of this State.

STATE ITEMS.

The commencement exercises at Dickinson College, situated at Carlisle, Pa., will take place during the last week of June. It is announced as part of the exercises that a poem will be delivered before the literary societies by Colonel Halpine, the celebrated "Private Miles O'Reilley."

Mr. Chase is well qualified for the position.

Lintner, Jr., Joseph Gwinner, I. W. Hodge, James Harding, John L. Smith, Joshua Anderson, James I. Johnston, Zachariah Laird. On motion it was agreed that the next fair shall be held on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, October 9th, 10th and 11th.

The large dwelling house owned by Charles Hyde, at Hydetown, Venango county, was destroyed by fire last Thursday morning. The furniture was saved. Loss about $1,500.

Operators in the Venango oil regions are much annoyed by oil well thieves—that is by individuals who carry off engines, tools, derricks, and frequently the casing out of the wells.

The correspondent of the Charleston Mercury who recently had an interview with Mr. Johnson, writes: "In conversation with individuals he was not politically reserved, and he did not hesitate to express his anxiety that not only for its own welfare, but for the peace of the country, the South should get back into the Union with as little delay as practicable. And there were some who left his presence satisfied that the usurpations of power, and free and easy exercise of military authority in certain extreme Southern quarters, would ere long receive a check that would remind officials that Andrew Johnson is still the President of the United States."

CITY MATTERS.

CLEANING.—Workmen were engaged yesterday in removing the filth from Fifth street.

SENT TO THE REFUGE.—A boy named William Brown, son of Alex. Brown, was committed to the House of Refuge yesterday for incorrigibility.

APPLICANTS TO HIGH SCHOOL.—The examination of applicants for admission to the Pittsburgh High School, will commence on Monday morning next, at nine o'clock.

QUOIT MATCH.—A match game of quoits, for a prize of one hundred dollars, will be played at the Union Skating Park, Allegheny, on Saturday, between David Bly and Michael Gormley.

TAKEN OVER.—Sheriff Cluly yesterday conveyed to the Western Penitentiary, in Allegheny, Thomas Carson, who was convicted last week of felonious assault and battery, and sentenced to an imprisonment in that institution for a term of four years.

A GOOD APPOINTMENT.—John S. Edgar, Esq., Weighmaster of the Allegheny Diamond Scales, has received the appointment of Deputy Sealer of Weights and Measures, from H. B. Lyon, Esq., the present Sealer. The appointment is a good one.

SKIFF RACE.—A skiff race will take place at sunrise on Saturday morning next, on the Allegheny river, between two young aspirants for acquatic honors, for a keg of beer and a new hat. The same contestants had a race last summer, but the result being undecided, they agreed to row another race this spring, which takes place at dawn on Saturday, as stated.

ANOTHER SKIFF RACE AT FREEPORT.—On last Saturday evening a skiff race took place over the one mile course on the Allegheny river, at Freeport, W. S. Johnson and A. B. Murphy, rowing against J. M. Metz, and D. L. Shirley, resulting in the success of the former parties. The race occasioned considerable excitement and was witnessed by several hundred persons. Another race is spoken of between the same parties for a purse of forty dollars.

THE COURTS.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.—Before Judge Sterrett.

SENTENCED.

J. A. Carline, convicted a few days since of assault and battery on Mary Greenawalt, was sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars and costs.

LARCENY OF MONEY.

John Patterson was arraigned for the larceny of thirteen dollars from a fellow boarder named Denson. The parties, who are colored, boarded at Mrs. Reed's, on Federal street, Allegheny. Some time since Denson was robbed, while sleeping, of thirteen dollars. Another boarder at the house testified that he detected Patterson in the act of stealing the money, and received one dollar from him to keep the secret, but afterwards divulged it. The jury, however, apparently did not place reliance upon the statement, as they returned a verdict of not guilty.

INDECENT ASSAULT.

John Walker was placed on trial on a charge of committing an indecent assault upon Mrs. Bridget Montgomery, a widow, residing in the Third Ward. The jury rendered a verdict of not guilty, and ordered each party to pay one-half the costs.

ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO STEAL.

William Messick was placed on trial for assault with intent to steal. Eli Wycoff testified that on the 21st of May last, Messick visited his tavern in South Pittsburgh, and attempted to pick the pocket of Matthew Harbison, who was in the room at the time. Mr. Harbison testified that he detected Messick in the act, and pushed him against the fire place. For the defense it was alleged that Messick was under the influence of liquor, and had no intention of stealing. The jury rendered a verdict of guilty.

ILLEGAL LIQUOR SELLING.

Joseph O'Connor and Ellen, his wife, were tried on a charge of selling liquor on Sunday. The defendants reside at Saw Mill Run. This is the first case which has arisen under the provisions of the new liquor law requiring constables to arrest all drunken persons found in the steets or other public places, and take them before a magistrate, who shall ascertain the facts as to when and where they obtained the liquor. John Marshall was found drunk on the public highway on Sunday, June 9th, and upon being taken before a magistrate, stated that he had procured liquor at O'Connor's. He was brought into Court on a process, and testified to the fact, but said that he did not pay for it, although he admitted that before leaving the house he placed some money on the table, which was taken up by one of the children. The defense contended that the liquor had not been sold to Marshall, and that the money was a present to one of the children. The jury rendered a verdict of not guilty, but ordered the defendant to pay the costs.

ATTEMPT TO STEAL A WATCH.

Peter Stewart, a lad about eighteen years of age, was arraigned on a charge of assault with attempt to rob. George Harmans, the prosecuting witness, testified that he met defendant at Sweitzer Hall, on Penn street in the Fifth ward, on Tuesday evening last, and invited him to take a drink. After drinking a glass of beer Harmans set down upon a chair, when Stewart approached him, and endeavored to steal his watch. The witness, who confessed that he was intoxicated, noticed the movement and pushed Stewart away. A police officer then came into the saloon, arrested Stewart and conveyed him to the Mayor's office. He was committed to jail for trial, by the Mayor, and the information sent to the Grand Jury, who returned a true bill immediately. Stewart was convicted some time since for robbery and sentenced to the Penitentiary, but was pardoned by the Governor and released. The case had not been concluded at adjournment.

Alleged False Pretenses.

Mr. J. J. Shutterly, of the firm of Alcorn & Shutterly, appeared before Acting Mayor Owston yesterday, and entered a complaint against Azar Hodgkins, a resident of Philadelphia, charging him with obtaining money under false pretenses. Mr. Shutterly alleged that the firm purchased from Hodgkins, for the sum of nine hundred dollars, the right to manufacture a compound known as "White's Metallic Lubricating Oil," under the representation that it was equal to lard or sperm oil for lubricating purposes; would resist the action of water, and would not be affected by a change in the temperature of the weather. A trial of the oil, however, convinced the purchasers, that they had been imposed upon. A warrant was issued for Hodgkin's arrest, and placed in the hands of Mr. Shutterly, who started for Philadelphia yesterday aftrnoon in search of the alleged swindler.

Trot at Perrysville Park.

An exciting trot to harness will take place at the Perrysville Park this afternoon at three and a half o'clock, (and not yesterday afternoon, as stated in the Chronicle,) between Elijah Hall's sorrel horse "Ned," and John Carson's grey horse "Shoemaker," for a purse of two hundred dollars, mile heats, best three in five. As this will be one of the most closely contested trots of the season, great interest is manifested in the result. Both horses are in excellent trim, and as they are among the most promising three minutes nags in this city, the interest in the race of to-day is quite intense among turfites. The course at Perrysville is one of the very best in the West, of its size, and is attracting the attention of the owners of good horses as an elegant place to exercise at.

Shocking Accident—Boy Scalded to Death.

Thomas Fitzpatrick, son of Frank Fitzpatrick, miner at Moore's coal works, on the Pittsburgh and Connellsville Railroad, while getting "slop" out of the large swill tub at Moore's still-house, at Guffey's station, on Tuesday evening, lost his balance and fell into the tub of boiling "slop" and was so severely scalded, literally from his head to his feet, that he died in about four hours. Dr. J. L. Penney, of Coultersville, was immediately summoned; but the poor lad was beyond all earthly skill. He was twelve years and three months old. He was the boy who, with his mother, was caught by the falling slate in a coal mine, last November, when his mother had both legs broken, but recovered afterwards.

FESTIVAL.—A strawberry festival, that will be attractive in itself, and a help to a good cause, will take place this evening, and be continued to-morrow evening, in the Lecture room of the First Presbyterian Church, Wood street. It is intended to further, financially, a very exultant school and mission enterprise in the upper part of Allegheny. The school services were begun and continued in a lager beer saloon, and the festival is intended to supplement the fund, raised by private liberality, for procuring a more suitable house. It is a good undertaking and we hope will be well patronized this evening and to-morrow.

THE BUTLER COUNTY JAIL.—The contract for the construction of the new jail and Sheriff's house at Butler, has been given to John M. Kennedy, of Prospect, he being the lowest bidder. The contract for the carpenter work has been awarded to Mr. Purvis, of Butler. The work of building the jail will be commenced in a short time. Owing to the fact that it was impossible to have the old buildings removed from the lot at an early date, and that, in consequence a great part of the building season has already passed, the new buildings cannot be completed this year.

THE MUSICAL CONTEST TO-NIGHT.—The event in the closing exercises of the year at the Pittsburgh Female College, will take place this evening, when a number of young ladies will compete for the vocal and instrumental music prizes, in the College Chapel. As we have said before, this is always a pleasant occasion, and will attract a large audience. Tickets of admission can be procured at the music stores, at twenty-five cents each, this fee being charged in order to defray the incidental expenses of the contest.

BREAKING OF LOCK NO. 4.—A portion of Lock No. 4, on the Monongahela river, above Monongahela City, was broken on Tuesday afternoon about five o'clock. The break was caused by some gravel at the bottom of the dam being washed away. Two of the passenger steamboats are below the Lock, and the remainder are above. The boats did not leave this city yesterday as usual, the Lock not being yet repaired.

HIGH SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.—The Commencement exercises of the Pittsburgh Central High School will take place at Masonic Hall, this evening, commencing at a quarter to eight o'clock. A number of young ladies and gentlemen will read essays and deliver orations, which will be of a varied and interesting character, after which the graduating class will receive their diplomas. These exhibitions are always interesting, and will attract a large audience to-night.

SHOE STORE ROBBED.—The store of Mr. Wm. McLaughlin, boot and shoe dealer, at No. 350 Liberty street, abjoining the Irwin House, was burglariously entered on Tuesday night. An entrance was effected through the front door by means of a skeleton key. Seven pairs of fine boots, worth fifteen dollars a pair, and several pairs of ladies' shoes and gaiters were stolen. There is no clue to the thief or missing property.

BODY RECOVERED.—A telegraphic dispatch was received yesterday from W. Albert, Esq., at Parkersburg, West Virginia, announcing that the body of his brother, Edward Albert, clerk of the steamboat Lorena, who was drowned near that place on Saturday last, had been recovered, and will be taken to his home at Hagerstown, Maryland, to-day, for interment.

FATAL ACCIDENT.—A little boy by the name of Felatman, aged four years, met with a shocking accident on Sunday, resulting in his death on Monday night. He was playing around the stove, when a kettle was accidentally overturned, and the contents of boiling water, thrown over him, resulting in his death on the following evening, as stated. The child's parents are German, and reside at Soho.

FOUND DROWNED.—The body of an unknown man was found in the Ohio river, near Baden, Beaver county, a few days since. The deceased was about five feet eight inches in height, light complexion, sandy hair, had a scar on right side of forehead, about one-half an inch below the hair, had on a barred shirt and fine flannel undershirt, barred vest, and in one of the pockets a pen-knife with small blade.

MEETING OF SOLDIERS' LEAGUE.—A regular meeting of the Allegheny County Soldiers' League was held at their hall in Allegheny, on Tuesday evening, and was largely attended. President Callow presided. A number of applications for membership were received and favorably acted upon, and several new members were duly initiated. Several contributions of books and other articles were reported, and thanks returned to the donors. The amendments to the constitution, offered at the last meeting, were taken up, discussed and rejected. Mr. J. P. McHendry presented his resignation as Assistant Secretary of the League, which, on motion, was laid on the table. A spirited address on "The Good and Welfare of the Soldiers' League" was delivered by Capt. John T. Sample, which was well received. After transacting some miscellaneous business, the League adjourned.

THE FESTIVAL ON THE FOURTH.—A number of distinguished aeronauts, including the brothers Wood, Messrs. Wesley, Dennison, Brooks, Hayden, Shotts and Light, have arrived in the city, and will take part in the balloon ascensions at the Grand National Festival at Union Park, on the Fourth of July. Messrs. Thurston, Godard and others are expected daily. Manager Kinney yesterday received two more applications—one from Johnstown and the other from this city—from parties desiring to be married in a balloon, and if he should accommodate all who apply, there will be quite an interesting scene at the Park during the Festival. The gifts and prizes to be distributed at the Festival, will be on exhibition at the ticket office, No. 74 Fifth street, opposite the Post-office. The sale of tickets will commence this morning.

THE RAILROAD MEETING AT BROWNSVILLE.—A number of Pittsburghers who intended to be present at the meeting of the corporators and friends of the Monongahela Valley Railroad, at Brownsville to-day, are deterred from so doing, owing to the break in Dam No. 4, preventing the departure of the regular packet last evening. At the late meeting of the corporators of this road, at Elizabeth, the steamer upon which parties from Brownsville had taken passage was detained at Monongahela City, through an accident to her machinery. These facts are additional evidence of the necessity for completing the road at once.

GOING TO EUROPE.—Rev. C. A. Dickey, pastor of the Fourth United Presbyterian Church, Allegheny city, will sail in the steamer City of Antwerp, from New York for Liverpool, on Saturday next, 22d instant. With a most generous liberality, his congregation have presented him with a purse of fifteen hundred dollars to defray the expenses of the trip. Mr. Dickey will be accompanied by his estimable wife, and will be absent about four months. During his absence the congregation have resolved to repair their place of worship on an extensive scale.

ATTEMPTED TO ESCAPE.—As the emigrant train on the Pennsylvania railroad was leaving Homewood Station, on Tuesday evening, where it had stopped to take on a pic-nic party, a prisoner in charge of an officer from Johnstown, who was on his way to Cincinnati to answer a charge of horse stealing, made a desperate attempt to escape by jumping from the car window, notwithstanding the fact that he was manacled with heavy irons. The officer jumped off after him, secured him, and the train was checked and the prisoner put on board.

AN OLD FRIEND.—For many years the Press of the country has chronicled the beneficial effects of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Editors, authors, physicians, merchants, officers of the army and navy, chemists, counsellors, ministers of the gospel, in short, a great cloud of witnesses of every profession, trade and calling, have testified to its efficacy as a tonic and regulating medicine. The names and statements of these witnesses have been published in the public prints. Many of them are well known to the whole public. Their testimony has never been challenged or impugned. This

FINANCE AND TRADE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, June 10, 1867.

There are no new features developed to-day in the workings of the local money market. It is not expected that the banks can relax their rigid course imposed upon them by the strictures and forms of the National Banking law, until after the first of next month, when they can gradually work into greater ease. The demand for bonds is as great as in the busy season. All the usual sources of supply are well besieged by borrowers and capital can readily be employed at profitable rates.

—The bidding at the stock sale last evening was not very spirited. There was a much longer list of offerings than usual, but the greater portion of the stocks were withdrawn under too low figures to suit the views of sellers. A small lot of the National Refining and Storing Company sold yesterday at 5, and also a small lot of Columbia Oil stock sold at 6 20.

—The principal feature in the New York report to-day received by Messrs. McVay & Co., is the sharp rise in gold. It is said that the short interest in the Gold Room having been increased, the cash gold is now lending free of interest, and this, of course, encourages the speculation in the upward direction. Some use was also made of the talk of the meeting of Congress in July, in connection with the Attorney General's opinion on reconstruction. It would be difficult to figure out why such a meeting of Congress should advance the price of gold under any circumstances. It would be especially so in reference to a meeting avowedly to correct the supposed legal defects, and to hasten the execution of the Reconstruction Act.

Governments are a shade under the figures of yesterday:

—The Herald discourses on the condition of the Railway share market, which ruled languid and weak yesterday, but has symptoms of coming strength. The continued absence of outside support has a discouraging effect upon the professional speculators who are at present operating for a rise, and there is a corresponding indisposition to "load up" further until the harvest prospects become more decided or a demand from the public springs up. The latter is not likely to be experienced to any material extent until after the pecuniary results of abundant crops have been reaped in whole or in part, and meanwhile the professional speculators will have to rely upon each other for support, or cut each others' throats at discretion on the Kilkenny cat and dog-eat-dog principle. It is undeniable that railway shares are and have been for some time past selling at prices so low as to be, provided the roads they represent are well managed, below their real value, and even under existing circumstances they are probably cheap. The public, however, has lost confidence in railway shares in consequence of not a few of the roads being managed in Wall street for the benefit of the speculative directors, and entirely regardless of the interests of stockholders. These men manipulate their respective stocks up and down irrespective of real values, and solely to entrap the unwary and fill their own pockets. They go designedly to work with the necessary capital, and for the outside public to attempt to compete with such skilled combinations is very much like playing against sharpers with loaded dice, and the one class of men is as unscrupulous as the other. To caution the public against the snares and pitfalls of Wall street would seem to be unnecessary in view of its past experience if we did not know that in many instances the latter is like seed sown on stony ground and soon becomes effaced. As it is we advise all those who are contemplating "a flyer" in stocks to change their mind on the subject, but to those who can pay for their securities and lock them up for an indefinite period in their strong boxes we have no words of discouragement. The time will come when all the leading railways of the country will be far more valuable properties than they are now, and their stocks will undergo a proportionate improvement in value. By that time they will be bought up for investment, and stockholders will feel sufficient interest in the management of these great highways of traffic to vote at the annual elections for directors, while the stocks being out of Wall street, directors will no longer seek their positions for stock jobbing purposes. The sooner this time comes the better for stockholders and the commercial and traveling public.

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, WEDNESDAY EVENING, June 19, 1867.

There was a moderate trade done to-day in our general markets, but prices were mostly at a lower scale of prices than those that have ruled for a long time back. Flour was only moderately active, and lower prices are anticipated by the trade generally. The grocery trade was somewhat brisk and we notice an advance in sugars. There is a fair trade doing in bacon and lard at previous prices.

The receipts of some of the leading articles of produce, per river and railroad, since our last, were as follows: Flour 352 bbls; cheese 105 bxs; corn 690 sacks; oats 1,202 sacks, and butter 23 pkgs.

We quote as follows, which are the wholesale store prices, unless otherwise stated:

APPLES—Choice old apples are in demand at $10@11 ℔ bbl. New Eastern apples are selling at 50c ℔ half peck, at retail.

BACON, LARD, &C.—Sales from packers reported of 2,000 lbs sugar cured hams, at 16@16½c; 1,000 lbs sugar cured shoulders at 12c; 2,500 lbs common shoulders at 9½c; 500 lbs dried beef at 23@25c, and lard at 13c ℔ lb.

BUTTER—Choice roll in good order may be quoted at 17@18c ℔ lb.

CHEESE—We quote Goshen at 20c; W. R. at 14@15c, and Hamburg at 15@16c ℔ lb.

DRIED FRUITS—Choice peaches halved may be quoted at 14@15c, and other qualities at 10@13c ℔ lb. The best dried apples sell at 8c ℔ lb.

EGGS—The market is better supplied and prices are tending downward. We note sales of 27 bbls at 19@20c ℔ doz.

FLOUR—The market was only moderately active. A tumble in prices is generally looked for. We quote good Spring at $11 50@12 00; medium Spring at $11 00@11 50, and Winter at $13 00@13 50 ℔ bbl.

GRAIN—No reported sales of wheat.

CORN—We note sales of 1 car at 80c ℔ bush, and 420 bush shelled at 87½c ℔ bush.

RYE—Sales reported of 2 cars at $1 27 ℔ bushel.

OATS—We note sales of 300 bushels at 65c ℔ bushel, from store.

BARLEY—We have reported sales of 374 bushels spring barley, at $1 10 ℔ bushel.

HAY—Sales from country wagons were made at $18 00@22 00 ℔ ton.

POTATOES—Prices declining. Sales from store of P. B. were made at $1 25 ℔ bushel.

Groceries.

Business in groceries continues brisk and prices are well maintained. Sugars have advanced, and in anticipation of a largely increased demand, occasioned by the large fruit crop coming on, and which will require more "sweets" than have been used in making up canned fruits for several years, a still further advance may be expected. Mackerel have still further declined, and the news from the fisheries indicate a large catch, and low prices for No. 3's. No. 1's and 2's will maintain their present position until the catching season for these grades commences. Carolina rice scarce.

COFFEE—Old Government Java, 33c; Laguayra, 27c; Rio, choice, 27c; prime, 26½c; good, 25c; roasting, 23c.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, THURSDAY, June 20, 1867.

BUSINESS—The oil market may be set down as being very unsettled. The sales made for immediate delivery were unusually small, the rates of crude being pretty low down. The stock on hand is not large, while the only operations of any magnitude being made was for next year's delivery, buyers' option. It would seem by the operations reported during the past two months, that sellers have large faith in the production of oil in the next eighteen months. Yesterday's operations alone, to be delivered during that period, were 15,000 bbls. The river to Oil City remains low. No receipts were received through that channel. The sales of raw material were: Crude—Sales 400 bbls bulk, 40 to 42 gravity, 6¼c; sales 400 bbls do, 6c ℔ gallon; sales 5,000 bbls, deliverable at any time from date to December 31, 1868, buyers' option, at 12½c ℔ gallon; sales of 10,000 bbls bulk, to be delivered precisely on the same terms as the above. Total sales 15,800 bbls.

REFINED OIL—Was in fair demand for future delivery; the rates were low. The amount disposed of reached 6,500 bbls, delivered as follows: 1,000 barrels, standard white, Philadelphia immediately, 21½c; sales 1,000 bbls do July delivery, 22c; sales 1,000 bbls do, at any time during 1867, buyers' option, at 26c ℔ gallon. We also note the following sales: 3,500 bbls of bonded, Philadelphia delivery, in the following order: 500 bbls of standard white, July, 24½c; 500 bbls do, August, 24½c; 500 bbls do, September, 24¼c; 500 bbls do, November, 24½c, and 500 bbls do, December, 24½c ℔ gallon.

FREE OIL—The market was dull and inactive. The only sales made were in 5 and 10 barrel lots to city dealers, to supply the wants of the local trade. Sales 20 barrels of standard white at 39c ℔ gallon.

MILWAUKEE FLOUR AND GRAIN MARKET.

Special Correspondence of Pittsburgh Commercial.

MILWAUKEE, WIS., June 17, 1867.

During the past week we have lost the promise and comparative activity of a week ago, and have declined in prices and almost a stagnation in trade, while the prevailing confidence which has supported the market during past days of decline, is apparently giving way, and the desire is to "get from under the load" rather than put more on. The present reasons for decline would certainly be insufficient to bear down the market at times when a healthy tone characterized all its movements—but the nervous condition of the present, awakens suspicion, and the merest shadow of an influence is seized upon to move us up or down. So the far away crop is made to play its part, and the intervening time before the harvest, possibly filled with many an accident of "wind and weather," and which may utterly destroy the rich promise of the present, is almost ignored. To account for the present depression, it seems more probable that we are but passing through the usual course of speculative operations, which first in the height of speculative mania, elevates its object to almost fabulous figures, from which it must fall under a reaction, to a figure almost as low as it had been previously high, from which point it may gradually work forward to near its intrinsic value. Speculative operations invariably follow this rule, and the more active the operation, the more visible the changes consequent. That such are the present causes, in a great degree, of the present situation, there can be no doubt, and the decline in prices in grain and breadstuffs is more attributable to the "following the rule" than to the prospective influences extended by the yet to be harvested crop. Buyers are undoubtedly holding off that they may reap the full benefit of the decline, and will remain off, so long as a light demand indicates inactive markets. There is, however, a certain consumptive demand to be filled, for which a draft must be made upon the supply wherever it may be, and with the commencement of that draft we expect an advance. The large supply collected East of grain and breadstuffs must control a depression for the present. That we shall return again to old prices, is a dream of so long ago, that it is well nigh forgotten, and we hardly can go higher than the intrinsic value of the article to be purchased will warrant this season.

Our wheat market has been dodging about wildly during the past week, ruling as high as $2 22 ℔ bushel for No. 2 wheat, in store, and as low as $1 98. We have come to regard No. 2 wheat as our ruling grade, so little No. 1 is offered, and we note but one sale of that grade during the week at $2 31. Notwithstanding the "exhausted country," our receipts continue at the ordinary figures of the season, and though not large, they have exceeded shipments since our last date by nearly 19,000 bushels. Receipts of the week 116,014 bushels, shipments 97,226 bushels.

The operations of flour, as reported upon 'Change, have been extremely small, and with prices declining—buyers and sellers apart. we sum 13,845 barrels shipped during the past week from this port to the East, including that in transit.

We quote to-day—flour quiet but firm; not much disposition to trade by either buyers or sellers: city extras $10 50@11 50; country extras $9@9 50. Wheat declined 1@2c; No. 2 in store $1 98 ℔ bushel; No. 3 in store $1 70, buyer's option all month; No. 2 $2, seller's option do $1 98. Corn quiet; No. 1 old in store 82c. Oats steady at 58c. Rye steady at $1 05.

Freights—Wheat to Buffalo 5c, to Oswego 8½c; corn to Buffalo 4c.

Very respectfully,
MOWER, CHURCH & BELL.

THE RIVER AND MATTERS ALONG THE WHARF.—The weather yesterday was pleasant. Trade on the landing was brisk. The Allegheny was rising with five feet four inches by the marks. The Monongahela pier indicated three feet six inches last evening. The metal marks, foot of Wood street, show four feet ten inches. The wharf looked lively. The Argosy brought up a good trip. She was receiving for a return trip, and will depart this morning at 10 A. M., positively. The Wild Duck and model barges Dove and Swan came in with a fair cargo. They will have dispatch for a return trip to St. Louis. The Lorena was due last evening from St. Louis. The body of young Albert that was drowned below Parkersburg on Sunday was recovered yesterday, and will be forwarded to Hagerstown for interment. The Armadillo is announced for Cairo and St. Louis this day. The Delaware took her departure yesterday for Parkersburg in charge of Captain C. L. Brennan. The Leclaire No. 2 is announced for the same port this day. The steamer Kenton, Capt. Dunlap, arrived at New Orleans on Tuesday, all right, having made excellent time. She will load for this city. The present rise in our rivers will enable the Bayard and other boats to reach port.

THE Armadillo, for St. Louis, was receiving a big trip. Freights appeared plenty.

THE steamer Leclaire No. 2, Capt. Salat, is announced for Parkersburg this day.

THE Nat Williams is in the Louisville and Madison trade.

THE towboats Ajax, Horner, and Grand Lake arrived at New Orleans on the 15th.

HEAVY rains are reported at Nashville. A rise in the Cumberland is predicted by the knowing ones.

THE steamer Belle Vernon arrived at Cincinnati on Monday en route to St. Louis.

THE Robert Moore is due from Portsmouth this day. She will return to that port on Friday, at 4 P. M. So get ready.

THE steamer Nianza, which sunk in the Alabama river some days since, was built in this city by Capt. A. S. Shepherd before the war.

ENGINEER DROWNED.—C. Harlan, a well known engineer on the Lower Mississippi and Ohio rivers, was drowned on Saturday, from the steamer Horner, above Evansville.

THE mason work on the bridge over the Tennessee river at Johnsonville has been completed, and the whole structure will be finished by the first of July.

THE towboat Wild Duck and barges Dove and Swan came from St. Louis with a fine trip. She is receiving for a return trip, and will have dispatch for St. Louis.

BODY RECOVERED.—The body of Mr. Edward Albert, Clerk of the steamer Lorena, whose drowning we noticed on Monday, was recovered yesterday, as we learn by private dispatch from Parkersburg. His remains will be taken to Hagerstown to-day for interment.

MOUNTAIN STEAMERS ARRIVED.—The steamers Only Chance, Waverly and Deer Lodge, have arrived at St. Louis from Fort Benton, and Marcella and General Allen from Fort Rice. They found navigation excellent.

CAPTAIN D. SMEDLEY has purchased the Fanny Brandies. He will use her for a short time in raising the Sam Kirkman, sunk in Tennessee river during the war, and then drop her in as a Paducah and Tennessee river packet.

THE CINCINNATI ENQUIRER.—The river column of this paper has been greatly improved during the past few weeks. It is now one of the most readable on our list. We don't know who the reporter is, but one thing is very evident, he understands his business. We are pleased to note the improvemet.

THE fine passenger steamer Armadillo, Captain D. H. Swaney, is announced for Evansville, Cairo and St. Louis this day. This boat will go through without reshipping, and offers a fine opportunity to persons going that way. This boat is a light draught and will meet with no detention.

THE splendid passenger steamer Argosy, Captain Vandergrift, being unavoidably detained, will leave this morning positively for Cincinnati and intermediate ports, at 10 A. M. Passengers and shippers can rely on this. Mr. Scott, who presides in the office, is noted for his attention to the wants of passengers. This is the Argosy's last trip until fall.

THE Cincinnati Gazette is responsible for the following: Jesse Burdsal, the popular receiving clerk for the Argosy and Belle, at this port, disappeared last week and turned up in the Smoky City, where he united destinies with a charming young lady, who was waiting expectantly for her Jesse. Success say we.

JEFFERSONVILLE, IND., June 17, 7 P. M.—River on a stand with four feet in the pass over the falls. Heavy storm to-day with rain, lightning and thunder very heavy. The Emma Floyd and Golden Eagle passed down on Sunday. The Westmoreland and Sherman to-day passed down. Nothing up to-day.
D. M. DRYDEN, Falls Pilot.

THE Louisville Courier has been coaxing the steamer R. E. Lee to make a trip to Louisville, but it was no go. The Lee was there once, that seems to be sufficient. Listen: We learn that the Robert E. Lee does not have her trips extended to this port, but turns back from Cairo to Evansville.

A COLD LOCATION.—A dispatch from St. Joseph dated Saturday, says:

On the 6th day of June the Belk range of mountains, which lie south and east of Fort Benton, were entirely covered with snow. The Bear Paw mountain which lie north of Benton were also covered with snow.

THE NORTHERN LINE PACKET COMPANY.—The Democrat has the following: We are glad to notice the increasing prosperity of the Northern line of packets, an institution deserving the unswerving support of the public. Business, as usual on Monday, was dull, but still the regular packets had very good trips.

The river is falling again. At six in the morning, by the metal marks, there were seventeen feet eight inches, and at six in the evening fourteen feet five inches.

PROCLAMATION AT NEW ORLEANS.—Governor Flanders has issued a proclamation dated the 12th inst., for the more effectual enforcement of the quarantine. By it it is made the duty of the branch pilots of this port, in boarding vessels having sickness on board, to cause the Captains thereof, before entering the river, to display at their fore the national ensign, and so keep it until reaching quarantine grounds. All persons other than said pilots, and Captain and crew of the tow boats in charge of said vessels, are forbidden to board or communicate with them, under penalty of being severely dealt with by the military to whom they are reported.
